

1

It's carnival and you really want to go as a princess this year. Your parents, on the other hand, say that this is a costume for girls.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You don't go to carnival. You prefer to stay home alone.
- B) You go to carnival, but you put on a pirate costume, although you don't really like it.
- C) You go to carnival and dress up as a princess.

HOMOPOLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

1

A) +

B) -

C) +

HOMOPOLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

In your class, there's a new student named Alex. As there is a free chair next to you, he sits next to you. You get along very well right from the start. While all the other boys start holding hands with girls and "being together" with them, you are not into that. You prefer to look at Alex.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You do homework together in the afternoon and you tell him that you really like him and that you think he's cute.
- B) You keep it a secret that you like him very much and that you think he's cute.
- C) You write him an anonymous note saying that you really like him and think he's cute.

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

A) +

B) -

C) +

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

3

Your class is at school camp and you share a double room with Alex. The week was fun and you think you know that Alex likes you too. It's the last evening, Alex and you are in your room and you would like to kiss Alex.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You don't kiss him.
- B) You kiss him.

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

3

- A) Follow way b!
- B) Follow way a!

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

4a

Alex and you have been together for a while now and you are really happy. Your parents realize that lately you have been in a good mood and very happy. They ask you why.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You tell them that you're in love with someone, but you do not say who that is.
- B) You tell them that you are in love with Alex and that you are a couple.
- C) You tell them something positive to calm them down.

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

4a

A) +

B) +

C) -

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

5a

By now your parents know that you are with Alex and they would like to meet him.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You keep making up excuses for why Alex doesn't have time.
- B) You decide against inviting him to your home. Although you like being with Alex, you are not comfortable with the idea of being with him as a same-sex couple in front of your parents.
- C) You bring Alex to dinner on Saturday.

HOMOPOLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

5a

A) -

B) +

C) +

HOMOPOLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

4b

At the beginning of the English lesson, homework is talked about. During the last two English lessons, you have been watching a very sad movie and for today's homework you had to write about your honest feelings. You did the homework, of course. A classmate comments: "That homework was really gay!"

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) The statement hurts you. At the risk of someone becoming suspicious, you respond: "A homework assignment cannot be gay. You have no idea what that means!"
- B) That hurt a lot. Before you embarrass yourself by reading your text, you say that you forgot your homework.
- C) The statement hurts you, but you have to live with it. He does not mean it that way. If you have to read your text out loud, you just do it.

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

4b

A) + Four circular icons of a person with dark hair and a red shirt, arranged horizontally.

B) - Four circular icons of a person with dark hair and a red shirt, arranged horizontally.

C) - One circular icon of a person with dark hair and a red shirt.

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

5b

During the break in the schoolyard, a group of teenage boys jostle another student and call him a “faggot”.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You're glad they're not after you and you continue chatting with your friends.
- B) You do not react right away. When the group is gone, you go over to the boy and ask him if everything is ok. He shouldn't listen to them, they are just idiots.
- C) You go over there immediately and confront the boys. You take the risk of being insulted, too.

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

5b

A) -

B) +

C) +

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

6a

Your family's friends and neighbors are invited to a barbecue this weekend. Your sister wants to bring her boyfriend and introduce him to everyone. She hopes that Alex and you will come, too.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You and Alex go to the barbecue.
- B) You and Alex don't go to the barbecue.
- C) You go to the barbecue without Alex, although you would like to have him with you.

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

6a

A) +

B) +

C) -

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

7a

Your grandmother is celebrating her 70th birthday on the weekend and all relatives, including the annoying uncles, aunts, and cousins are invited. Everyone is welcome to bring their partners.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You bring Alex and introduce him as a good friend.
- B) You do not bring Alex. You spare yourselves the embarrassment.
- C) You bring Alex and introduce him as your partner.

HOMOPOLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

7a

A) -

B) -

C) +

HOMOPOLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

8a

Friends from your sports club plan a couples' movie night on Friday evening and invite you and your "plus one". So far, they know you are in a relationship, but they don't know yet that it's a boyfriend.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You go there on your own, although you would like to have Alex with you.
- B) You say that you don't have time on Friday night. You spend time with Alex instead.
- C) Alex and you are going to the couples movie night.

HOMOPOLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

8a

A) -

B) +

C) +

HOMOPOLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

9a

You and Alex have been a couple for quite a while now. You like to spend breaks together in the schoolyard. There you sit side by side in the grass, you want to take Alex's hand and hold it.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You better not do anything.
- B) You take his hand and hold it.
- C) You stroke his hand briefly and then look around to see if anyone saw it.

9a

A) -

B) +

C) +

10a

By now, all your friends know about your relationship with Alex. Together with some of your friends you go dancing at the only disco in the village on the weekend. Some of your friends also have their partners with them. Every now and then they hug and kiss.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You and Alex hug each other, too.
- B) You and Alex hug and kiss each other, too.
- C) You and Alex better not hug or kiss each other.

HOMOPOLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

10a

A) +

B) +

C) -

HOMOPOLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

11a

You had a fight with Alex, so in the evening you are quite unfocused during basketball training. Your coach wants to talk to you after the training. He asks you what's going on.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You say it's nothing and take a shower.
- B) You say that you're going through rough times in your relationship with Alex.
- C) You say that you're going through rough times in your relationship.

HOMOPOLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

11a

A) -

B) +

C) +

HOMOPOLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

12a

During the break in the schoolyard, a group of teenage boys jostle another student and call him a “faggot”.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You're glad they're not after you and you continue chatting with your friends.
- B) You do not react right away. When the group is gone, you go over to the boy and ask him if everything's ok. He shouldn't listen to them, they are just idiots.
- C) You go over there immediately and confront the boys. You take the risk of being insulted, too.

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

12a

A) -

B) +

C) +

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

6b

A girl from your class with who you have little to do with, but is nice to you, asks you in presence of her annoying friends if you would like to go to the movies with her. It seems like she's asking you out on a date.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You refuse without explanation and tell her that you don't feel like it.
- B) Since you don't want to disappoint her and she is kind of nice to you, you agree. Maybe your attraction to boys is just a phase. A date would finally be something "normal". If need be, you can always come out with the truth someday ...
- C) You say that you like boys and that she would only waste her time.

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

6b

A) +

B) -

C) -

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

7b

At your mother's birthday party, all the relatives sit together having dinner. First, the conversation was about your brother's girlfriend. At some point, your annoying aunt asks you if you already have a girlfriend. Such a handsome boy like you must be a real heartthrob.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You say you don't have time for girls at the moment. School and your hobbies are more important to you.
- B) The constant grilling completely annoys you and you answer angrily in front of the gathered relatives that you want nothing from girls and that everyone should leave you alone.
- C) You claim that you have been seeing a girl lately and that you're not sure yet where it will lead.

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

7b

A) +

B) -

C) -

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

8b

In the locker room of the sports club, your eyes are stuck on another boy, who is very athletic and who you find really sexy.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You hope that he just doesn't notice you watching him, and enjoy the beautiful sight at least.
- B) You take the risk and tell him that he is super athletic and that you wish you could look like that, too.
- C) You change as quickly as possible without even looking left or right. Time to leave!

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

8b

A) +

B) +

C) -

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

9b

Your class teacher whom you do not actually have much to do with, asks you to stay in the classroom for a moment at the end of the day, because he wants to talk to you. He tells you that he's recently noticed a change in your behaviour. According to him you are introverted and isolated, as if you were dealing with something. He says that you can always talk to him in case you would like to talk about any worries.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) In fact, he is right, but your problems are of none of his business. So you tell him that he's wrong and go home.
- B) Although you indicate that he's not mistaken, you don't go into detail.
- C) You are glad that someone noticed. You tell him that you think you are gay, but you want him to keep it to himself.

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

9b

A) -

B) +

C) +

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

10b

Since nobody should know about your sexual orientation in real life, you prefer to spend your time on the internet. In a chat for gays you've met a guy who's pretty cute and charming. Finally someone who understands you. You do not really know much about him, though. Meanwhile, he has repeatedly asked if you would like to meet in real life.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You are not very fond of meeting at a stranger's place, but you agree.
- B) You would really like to meet, but you don't want a date in the apartment of a stranger, let alone at your home. The only option left is a date in public, risking that friends or schoolmates might see you.
- C) You invite him to your home. Somehow it must be possible to keep your family away from home for a few hours. If not, you say he's a buddy from the sports club.

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

10b

A) +

B) +

C) -

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

11b

At school, you attended a workshop from the "Diversity Youth Center", which was about sexual diversity. You learn that once a month, a meeting takes place for boys of your age, no matter if they are out or still in the closet, heterosexual or homosexual.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You are determined to go, even if there is a risk that someone you know sees you there.
- B) Sounds nice, but practically this would be your coming out. When you show up there, everyone will know ... so you don't go.

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

11b

A) +

B) -

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

12b

After years of insecurity and doubt, you finally feel ready to accept yourself and the fact that you are different from most guys. Now you finally want to honestly talk to others about it and tell them that you are gay.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) The next day, you go in front of your class and tell them the truth.
- B) First, you tell your closest friends about it. Sometime later, you come out to your parents.
- C) You wait for the next family party and come out to your family and the neighbours at the same time.

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

12b

A) +

B) +

C) +

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

Since last week, you are with Justin and you are really happy. You meet your two best friends in a café and they ask you how your new relationship is going. The café is small, and all the seats are taken. You can overhear the other guest's conversations pretty well.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You take a lot of time to openly talk about your relationship with Justin.
- B) You say nothing and change the subject. That is no one's business.
- C) You talk to your two best friends about your relationship, but in a neutral way without mentioning Justin's name or using male pronouns.

A) +

B) -

C) -

14

The prom takes place next week. You and Justin want to go, of course.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You go as a couple, meaning that you will make your relationship official to everyone who is there.
- B) You go, but not as a couple. You will each be accompanied by a good friend.
- C) You don't go to the prom.

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

14

A) +

B) -

C) -

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

15

You want to go to the movies Friday night, but Justin wants to watch a different movie than you.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) In order to come to an agreement, you accept Justin's movie proposal.
- B) You agree to watch the one movie on Friday and the other one on Saturday.
- C) You absolutely want to enforce your choice and risk a serious fight with your partner.

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

15

A) +

B) +

C) -

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

In Justin's company, the Christmas party is approaching. As usual, partners are invited, too. Justin wants you to accompany him and he wants to introduce you to his colleagues. His female colleagues are already very curious, because they find it so sweet to finally see a gay couple. You do not feel like going there at all.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You can really imagine something more pleasant than to satisfy the sensationalism of the colleagues. Therefore you rather stay home.
- B) You don't want to be the attraction of the evening. However, you agree, because you know that it's important to Justin.

A) +

B) -

Marriage is now legal for same-sex couples, too, and you plan to take this official step. You tell your friends the joyful news during a social gathering. Everyone is happy for you and asks a bunch of questions. A friend wants to know, which one of you will be the bride and dress up in white.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You make fun of her and answer sarcastically: "That'll be me! The dress has already been ordered."
- B) You ignore the question shaking your head and rolling your eyes.
- C) You tell her that her stereotypes are an insult to you.

A) +

B) +

C) +

You and Justin stroll around downtown on Saturday and want to look at wedding rings. In one shop you discover a beautiful pair of rings. You ask the saleswoman if you could take a closer look at these rings. She asks you, which of you is the groom and which ring size the bride has.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You explain that no woman is involved and that the rings are supposed to be for you.
- B) You leave right away, because you don't want to explain the details of your relationship to yet another person.
- C) You say that Justin is the groom and that the bride has the same ring size as you.

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

A) +

B) +

C) -

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

One evening in front of McDonald's you and Justin are waiting for the bus to go home. As it is raining, you are standing close to each other under your umbrella. Three meters away there are two visibly drunk men who suddenly notice you and then insult you for a while, calling you "faggot" and even worse.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You don't react, and you pretend not to hear the insults, even though you're cooking with rage.
- B) You and Justin prefer to leave the scene and get a taxi instead of waiting for the a bus.
- C) At some point you just had too much of this. You turn to the pair and tell them to shut up and to mind their own business.

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

A) -

B) -

C) -

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

20

In a job interview, your future boss asks you if you've discussed the decision to work in this company with your wife.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You say yes.
- B) You say no.
- C) You correct him and explain that you have a husband.

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

20

A) -

B) +

C) +

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

During your coffee break on the first day in your new job one of your new female colleagues comments on your beautiful wedding ring. You start a conversation and she asks you if you already have or if you would like to have children. (As a matter of fact, you'd like some later.)

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You tell her, with a grin on your face, that you really want to have children, but procreation won't be that easy for two men.
- B) You tell her not to be so nosy.
- C) You tell her that neither the one nor the other is the case.

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

A) +

B) +

C) -

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

Every morning when going to work, you and Justin share three stops on the subway. He gets off and you have to go a bit further. He quickly kisses you goodbye. An elderly gentleman notices this and in a low voice says to himself: "When I was young, that didn't exist!"

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You comment in a short and neutral way, that it's a good thing that today everyone can show their feelings openly, and then turn away from him.
- B) You ask him in a slightly provocative manner if he could please repeat what he just said.
- C) You put on your headphones and ignore him.

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

A) +

B) +

C) +

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

You and Justin plan your next vacation together. Your dream destination would be a certain African state, because you want to go on safari. Meanwhile, you have done some research and learned that homosexuality in this country is punished with many years of imprisonment or even death.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

- A) You do not go to this country.
- B) You go there, but pretend you're just good friends.
- C) You go there as a couple without pretending anything. You just hope that nothing bad will happen.

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

A) +

B) +

C) -

HOMO'POLY

UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTANCE
OF DIVERSITY, ESPECIALLY HOMOSEXUALITY

